1. Decision

After examining this record I have decided to partially exempt it from public access.

2. Basis for decision

I have taken into account:

- the content of the record requested
- the relevant provisions of the Archives Act 1983 (the Act)
- policy and guidelines of National Archives of Australia that relate to the access examination of Commonwealth records

3. Material withheld

Category of material withheld	Number of total folios per category
Partially exempted folios (certain parts of the text have been expunged)	0
Wholly exempted folios	1
Folios not within the open access period as defined in s3 (7) of the Act	14

4. Findings of fact and reasons for decision

A. Findings of fact

In Table A in Annexure 1, I have provided a summary of my findings of fact where I have invoked specific provisions under s 33 of the Act. By invoking these provisions, I have relied on material listed in part 2 above in order to arrive at my decision.

B. Reasons for decision

In Table A in Annexure 1, I have provided the reasons for my decision for each folio exempted and those reasons are derived from the findings of fact.

5. Appeal rights

The National Archives undertakes careful examination of a record before making a decision to exempt any part of a record. As part of that process we may consult with other agencies which have expertise on specific national and international matters.

If you do not agree with my decision to exempt information under a provision of s 33 of the Act, you can contact a reference officer in National Archives and seek a further explanation.

If you are still not happy with the decision and within 28 days of receiving it, you can formally appeal by:

- 1) first applying to Archives for an internal reconsideration of my decision; and
- 2) if you still do not agree with the decision, you can apply to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal for a review.

For more information please read the National Archives Fact Sheet 12- *What to do if we refuse you access. You can also lodge a complaint with the Commonwealth Ombudsman in relation to the decision.

Annexure 1

Table A: Material exempted by folio number and grouped by the application of exemption provisions

Relevant legislative provision invoked under s33 of the Act	Folio numbers	Finding of facts	Reasons for decision
S 33(1) (g) - information or matter the disclosure of which under this Act would involve the unreasonable disclosure of information relating the personal affairs of any person (including a deceased person).	29	These folios are wholly exempt as they contain: Information concerning the personal affairs of a named person.	The information withheld is of a nature such that its disclosure would be an unreasonable intrusion on the personal affairs of a person named in the record and could cause distress to the subject. There is no evidence available that the subject expected the information to be made publicly known in the intervening years. It is not likely that, if given the opportunity, the subject would consent to the release of such personal information about themselves. The information is of a kind that most members of the community would not want disclosed about themselves if placed in a similar position If publicly disclosed, the information could reasonably be expected to cause distress or embarrassment to the person concerned and to family members
