Dear Madam,

I shall be obliged if you will kindly advise me whether the father of the late No. 682 Private W. C. McDOUGALL, 40th Battalion, is still living, and if so, his present address.

I desire the information in order that I may be in a position to dispose of the late soldier's war medals, etc., in accordance with the instructions under the Deceased Soldiers' Estates Act of 1918, which prescribe that they may only be handed over in the following order of relationship:-

"...father, mother, etc...."

unless there are good and sufficient reasons for varying the procedure.

A communication to this effect was forwarded to you on the 17th January 1922, but no reply, however, was received. If the late soldier's father is still living, but you consider you have prior rights in the distribution of the mementos, the full facts of the case, if submitted for decision, will receive every consideration.

Dear Madam,

In reply to your telegraphic communication of 2nd instant, I regret to state your son, No. 692, Private Wallace Carlyle McDougall, 40th Battalion, is reported as having been killed in action on 7/6/17. The intimation of this casualty was forwarded to the Military Commandant, Hobart, on 28th ultimo, for transmission to you, as next-of-kin.

Any error which has occurred in the number and battalion, is no doubt due to mutilation in transmission of the telegram.

Yours faithfully,

Major,
Officer i/c Base Records.

Mrs. A. McDougall,
