Gentlemen Will you kindly forward me the address of my nephew Lieutenant Clifford C. Burge (now of the Infantry) Late L. M. Sergeant Clifford Burge of the 13th Light Horse, A. Squadron. During the time he was studying for his commission at Cambridge, England, his letters were always sent in the care of relatives in Scotland, who duly forwarded them on. Through some fresh regulation I understand, in the postal department, letters will not be forwarded to the front in this manner, & evidently this has been carried out as my nephew's letters have not reached him since Decr. 1914. His letter he forwarded his address in, evidently went down for it did

I could learn through the daily papers what regiment he had been attached to but so far his name has not appeared to my knowledge so could learn nothing from this source.
The people you letters <sup>mean</sup> such a lot to the lads fighting for years at the front.
Hoping you will obtain Lieutenant C. Burges address for me with as little delay as possible, & apologising

Would you kindly give me my nephew's address (Lieutenant C. C. Burge) on active service abroad & who was L. M. Sergeant C. C. Burge of 13th L. Horse. I understand he has been transferred to the Infantry. He has been addressing his letters to the care of relatives in Scotland, but he has lately not been receiving our letters, & I saw by the papers that the postal department had been raising difficulties in reference to forwarding letters addressed in this manner. I thought to receive them safely so addressed, as in moving he could apprise them sooner than in case of any change of address, to forward his letters by you. You would get their League Letters meant to the Australian Boys in the front. Will you kindly oblige me by forwarding his address abroad as early as possible.
