Dear Sir,

I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter dated 23rd instant concerning your son, Captain J. M. Dougall, 9th Battalion, which has crossed my communication of 21st idem advising that he had been admitted on 2nd November, suffering with slight fever, to hospital, Malta.

No further particulars have since come to hand but, as previously advised, favourable progress may be assumed in the absence of same, the usual practice of the overseas authorities being to notify the department of any serious change in condition.

You are already in possession of your son's postal address while at Malta, but should you desire to send a cable message, which can be coded at and despatched from any post office at the special week-end rate of 9d. per word, the shortest address is:-

Captain Dougall,
Sick, 9th Australian Infantry,
Malta.

If any later report is received you will be promptly notified.

Yours faithfully,

Capt.

(N S IN)

Dear Sir,

I wish to apply for the Angas medal that is being issued to Gallipoli Veterans or their next of kin. I am the only child of the late Major. John Mitchell Dougall. At the commencement of the Great War 1914, he joined the 9th Batt. in Brisbane as a Lieutenant & sailed with the 1st contingent. Promoted Captain in Egypt he was present at the Landing on April 25th at Gallipoli, being in the first boat ashore. Invalided to Egypt, later he was appointed to the command of the 13th Training Batt. at Salisbury Plains, England, subsequently he was appointed Major of the 49th Battalion.

Just this information is satisfactory I also have amongst his other medals (Boer War) & 14-18 war the Star medal of 14-15. I am sorry I am unable to find his Army number.

Thanking you.

Yours faithfully.

(Mrs) Helen M. Schubert.

13th Australian Infantry Brigade.

Headquarters,

14th June, 1917.

Headquarters,

4th Australian Division.

In the recent fighting this Brigade has lost two Battalion Commanders, and now that reorganization has begun one is faced with the problem of finding suitable men to take their places.

I very much regret that the seconds in command of the 49th and 52nd Battalions are not suitable for higher command. I have never been able to trust them to take the Battalions into action. This seems that an enormous strain is placed on the Commanding Officers and also it is unfair to the young capable officers that there are should be allowed to hold the position without taking the responsibility and risks that battle thrusts on us all.

I cannot give definite instances of these Officers inefficiency, it is rather that they do not do that gives the trouble. I do say however that I have absolutely no confidence in them, that I do not think they have the aptitude for leadership and demand none of sufficiently strong character to inspire their officers and co-ordinate the work of all ranks under their command.

I therefore strongly recommend that these Officers services be utilized in some sphere where such a high standard of efficiency is not necessary, or that their services be dispensed with altogether.

The officers concerned are :-

Major J.H. DOUGALL, 49th Batta.

Major E.A. MACDONALD, 52nd Batta.

I am in receipt of your confidential letter of 14.6.17 and duly note the contents. I have no comment to make other than to say for employment beyond the 13th Infantry Brigade, as it is just possible as in other walks of life, that though I do not suit suit the G.O.C., 13th Infantry Brigade, I may suit some other

Herewith are forwarded reports by the G.O.C., 4th Aust Infantry Brigade, and the G.O.C., 13th Australian Infantry Brigade as to the unsuitability of the following officers of this Division for the positions they are at present occupying, and asking that they be removed:-

1. Major E. TWYMAN, 2nd in command, 13th Battalion.
2. Major H.D. FREEMAN, " " " 14th "
3. Major J.M. DOUGALL " " " 49th "
4. Major H.A. MACPHERSON, " " " 52nd "

All these Officers have been duly informed of the adverse report submitted by Brigades, and have submitted statements which are attached hereto.

I have personally conferred with the Brigadiers concerned, and they are most emphatic in stating that they have no confidence in the officer in question.

Under the circumstances, I now recommend that they be removed from their present positions, and in the event of no suitable employment being available elsewhere, that they be returned to Australia.

In each of the four Battalions, there is available already, a senior officer capable of efficiently filling the position of second in Command, and if necessary of commanding the Battalion.

Re memo. No. 123/104.

Sir,

on the night in

In reply thereto, a question, I wrote to the C.O. of the Battalion as stated. I respectfully state that I halted the coy. in the dark and noticing that they were not all there, and told the leading platoon to go on whilst I saw what had become of the balance. I waited some time and saw them coming on then I hurried after the rest. I then walked on and in the dark mistook the way and wandered into the place occupied by British troops. I then ~~xxx~~ went across in the direction of Merrin Road and saw Lieut. Carson with a portion of this platoon gathering stores as we were the carrying coy. This was just after zero. I then proceeded to Brigade Headquarters and stated that I had been separated from my company and was directed verbally the road to take. I went on and met 2nd Lieut.
Barner and walked on when I met Captain Carrel we proceed onwards and coming to Clepham Junction tunnel I said to him, you have a slight wound, go in here and get it fixed up and we have time as we are not moving forward till the barrage on the 2nd objective lifts. He was dazed and took no notice of me and I proceeded through the tunnel in the direction I thought the Battalion was in. I proceeded along to what I imagined to be Jargon Trench
I was proceeding along and the barrage was very heavy and I halted to see best how I would get through it. There were other men in the vicinity. Suddenly the bunk behind which I stopped for a few minutes to see best to get on was blown in on top of me and I was covered partially with earth and a beam struck me in the head. 2 men lifted me out and helped me toward the Clepham Junction Tunnel and I do not remember much more for a few hours after this, I asked on orderly for some brandy

brandy and he said go to the next dressing station. I was still dazed and nervous and felt thoroughly done, I asked the M.O. could I get some brandy and ether for a couple of hours, they gave me some morphine pills and then an M.O. said you go back to the first station or A. S. and get 48 hours rest you will get plenty of straffing yet. I went to the HQre. and the M.O. there evacuated me to the Canadian C.I.C. who sent me to Boulogne Hospital from where I was discharged marked "B" Class to the R.A.M.C. and from thence I came on thinking I ought to get through. I by no means feel fit yet and still feel nervy and depressed. I have been serving continuously since August 29th 1914, including the landing at Anzac. I suffer very much at times from Rheumatism or Rheumatoid Arthritis. My health has never been good since I joined and I only feel equal to a training job or total discharge and I feel that I would not be much use till I got at least 2 months away free of military service and could get treated privately at my own expense, besides I have private troubles which worry me at times which does not leave me in a proper state of mind. I may state that on the morning of the 20th instant I met two men of the company who were wounded and asked them where the Coy. was and one of them said the order to scatter retire had been given by an officer. This order was not given to me and the facts could be ascertained from 2nd Lieut. Werner and others in the company including the guide, Pte. Llewellyn. As I have previously told the C.O.C. what happened and that I do not feel fit, I can offer no objection to his request, that I be returned. I am satisfied in my own mind that what I have said is correct, but I again say that I do not feel fit, but nervous and depressed. I have suffered since from headaches and since my brother was killed at Bullecourt I have also felt very depressed and out of sorts and the adverse report of the C.O.C., 13th Infantry Brigade which I feel was unjust has worried me into a poor frame of mind that I ought not to be in, in order to be an efficient leader.

Report on Major J.M. DOUGALL, 9th Battalion.

This officer was transferred to 9th Battalion in July last from 4th Division.

In the recent operations, (on 20th September), he failed in his duty. He was in charge of the company carrying stores, etc. but became separated from it before arriving at the assembly position.

He called at Brigade Headquarters about half an hour before zero, and asked to be directed to his Battalion. He received clear instructions to report to his Unit at once and was shown the route.

He failed to reach his Unit but was seen resting in the tunnels near Opalham Junction. He wrote to his C.O. to say he was suffering from shell shock and was being evacuated.

He returned to his Unit on 10th instant. He states that he was waiting under a bank when a piece of timber was knocked on him. This, he says shock him considerably. In my opinion he should not have become detached from his company, nor should have rested behind any bank when his company was about to attack the enemy.

Herewith is forwarded for the information and consideration of the G.O.C., Australian Imperial Force, a file of correspondence in connection with the abovenamed Officer, Major DOUGALL was returned to the 9th Battalion from the 42nd Battalion in July last, under circumstances that are within the knowledge of the G.O.C., A.I.F. (vide your 47/702 of 29.6.1917).

As will be seen from Major DOUGALL'S statement, he admits that he, at present, only "feels" equal to a training job or total discharge", and states that as he does not feel fit he can offer no objection to the recommendation of the G.O.C., 3rd Aust. Inf. Bde., that he be returned to Australia.

I concur in the opinion of the G.O.C., 3rd Australian Infantry Brigade that Major Dougall has lost the confidence of the officers and men of his Unit and recommend that his services be dispensed with.

The delay in submitting this report is due first to Major DOUGALL being evacuated and secondly to the recent move of the Division.
