Dear Madam,

I am in receipt of your letter of the 26th ult., regarding your son, Lieutenant Arthur Gurr Hinman, who is reported as having been wounded in action at the Dardanelles, and regret that up to the present there are no further particulars to hand.

He is not reported as being seriously wounded, however, and Egypt advises that in the absence of further information it is to be assumed all wounded are progressing satisfactorily.

So far, the name of the hospital in which he is located is unknown, and as you have not received a reply to the cable message you despatched addressed, "Base Hospital," Alexandria, it may, I think, be assumed that it has miscarried.

Should you wish to send another message the following cable address is suggested:-
