1. I hereby make application for discharge from the A.R.A. under AMR&O 253 (R.184) (viiA), on compassionate grounds for family reasons.
2. My wife, Ivy Clara HENRY, of 7 Harker St., BURWOOD, has been suffering from Anxiety Neurosis, which condition has been accelerated by my absence from home during the late war and now my repeated tours of duty to country training centres, Camps and Bivouacs.
3. Also my wife and I have four sons ageing from 4 years to 15 years, who are a source of worry to my wife when I am obliged to remain away from home. My wife assures me that should I not be able to effect my discharge we must forego our home and live with her parents. I have been guaranteed an excellent position with an adjacent factory and would be able to assist my wife should I be so situated.
4. I have recently acquired my own home, the first place of permanent residence my wife and I have enjoyed.
5. Whilst I may obtain a posting which does not entail my being away, the knowledge that I am still in the Services, and am liable to future postings, would be deleterious to my wife's health.
6. Appended is a certificate by Dr. D.J. CROTTY stating that the future health of my wife is dependant on the approval of this application.
