Income Tax Assessment Acts 1915.

I am desirous of ascertaining whether Mr. William Maxwell, who in January last stated that he was a Lieutenant in the Citizen Forces and had volunteered for active service but was then instructing at the Bendigo Camp, has yet left Australia with the A.I.F.

If you are in possession of the required information, and also of the date of his enlistment or appointment to the A.I.F., I should be glad if you would kindly advise me.

Please note
the Address.

INSTRUCTIONS to be observed by the Medical Board
preparing the Report.

1. On the occasion of an officer's first appearance before a medical board, the circumstances under which the wound or injury was sustained will be fully detailed.

2. If the injuries be more than one, they should be numbered and described separately; and should it be considered that, though slight in themselves, they represent together the equivalent of a single "very severe" injury, such an opinion may be expressed in the columns provided for that purpose.

3. The board will not express any opinion, either to the Officer examined, or in their report, as to the amount of compensation they may think should be awarded.

Dear Sir

My nephew
Lieut. W Maxwell tells me he has been boarded for return to Australia.
This is a great disappointment to him

as he is keen on joining his Battalion in France. I was responsible for the operation on his knee & I have examined him today. He is not yet fit for light duty, but I am sure if you could see your way to send him
such home for say 2 or 3 months, so that he could go to Sidmouth for six weeks. Maxwell will

INSTRUCTIONS to be observed by the Medical Board
preparing the Report.

1. On the occasion of an officer's first appearance before a medical board, the circumstances under which the wound or injury was sustained will be fully detailed.

2. If the injuries be more than one, they should be numbered and described separately; and should it be considered that, though slight in themselves, they represent together the equivalent of a single "very severe" injury, such an opinion may be expressed in the columns provided for that purpose.

3. The board will not express any opinion, either to the Officer examined, or in their report, as to the amount of compensation they may think should be awarded.
